Civic Association Annual Meeting

Thursday Evening, March 31st

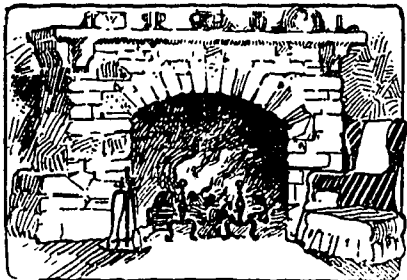

Election of Officers and Directors.

Amendments to Constitution to be proposed.

Illustrated Lecture with Slides in natural colors. Subject: "Beauty in a Small Garden," with color effect by Miss Emily Exley.

The Narberth Garden Club to be organized at this Meeting.

EVERYONE WELCOME

THE FIRESIDE

Mrs. Lela C. Gara and Miss Helen Gara spent several days at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. McGowan, of Geiger's Mills, Pa., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Haws.

Please don't forget to save Friday evening, April 1, for the Boy Scout Minstrels and Dance at Elm Hall.

Narberth High School Alumni! watch Our Town next week for notice of important business meeting.

Arbor Day dates for Pennsylvania have been changed to April 8 and 15, according to an announcement by the Department of Public Instruction.

The ash collectors cannot remove leaves, brush and garden rubbish, as this is all burnable material and should be burned in the garden. The ashes are a very valuable fertilizer.

A United States Civil Service examination will be held April 9, 1921, for rural carrier to fill a vacancy at Hatfield, Pa. See notice in lobby of post-office.

Thanks to the generosity and support of many kind friends, the party given on Friday evening, March 11, for the Homeopathic Hospital of West Philadelphia netted $33.75.

The Chamber of Commerce held a lively and interesting meeting on Thursday evening, March 10, a report of which may be read in another column.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Devon Horse Show and Country Fair, Inc., Saturday, Isaac H. Clothier, Jr., was elected a member of the Horse Show Committee, of which Dr. Thomas G. Ashton is chairman, and William H. Wanamaker, Jr., is secretary.

The concrete posts to be used in connection with the placing of street letter boxes throughout the borough for the collection of mail have been received by the postmaster. Upon receipt of the letter boxes from the department, the posts will be planted, boxes attached thereto and arrangements completed for the collection of mail.

The Crucifixion

Stainer's beautiful oratorio, entitled "The Crucifixion," will be sung on Sunday evening, March 20th, at 7.45 P. M., by the chorus choir of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Edward Stanley, of Narberth, and William Beatty, Jr., of Wayne, will be the soloists. Messrs. Justice, Rose and Smith will also assist in solo parts.

"Ride On, Ride On," by John Prindle Scott, will also be sung by the choir. There will be special Palm Sunday music at the morning service and beautiful Easter anthems on the 27th.

MRS. EDWARD STANLEY,
Organist.

A WORD IN PARTING

In accordance with my understanding with the Board of Directors of the Narberth Civic Association, at my request I am relieved of the duties of Editor of Our Town with this issue of the paper.

The regular publication of Our Town will be continued, and the newly appointed Editor will assume his duties with next week's issue.

After serving five and one-half years as Editor, I have become greatly attached to the work of editing this paper, and sincerely trust that my successor will derive fully as much pleasure and support as I have.

I take this opportunity of thanking all those who have so generously contributed in every way to the success of Our Town during my period of editorship.

Yours truly,

HARRY A. JACOBS.

Community Club Notes Narberth Choral Society

WELL-KNOWN AUTHOR AND NATURALIST—MR. SAMUEL SCOVILLE.

Those who know the charm of Mr. Scoville's writing will need only to hear his name to reserve Tuesday, March 22, for this unusual opportunity of hearing him at the Community Club. If the flash of the bluebird's wing thrills you, and if the treasures of arbutus, violets and wild azalea are full reward for weary feet, with what fascination will you follow Mr. Scoville, who teaches you the secrets of the fields and woods?

Do you know where to look for the nest of the meadow lark, or the Maryland yellowthroat, or the goldfinch, or the soft bed of the baby rabbits? Can you make the woods furnish you your luncheon on a cold winter morning? Mr. Scoville can. He makes our own familiar countryside seem like a new world. No one gives more delightful and intimate accounts of adventurous days.

The Club is fortunate to secure Mr. Scoville for its program at this season. Remember the hour, 2.30 P. M.

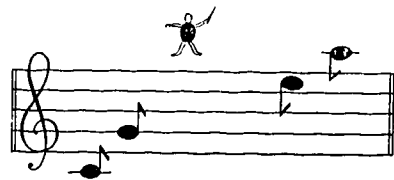

The Literature Class of the Community Club at its Monday morning meeting two weeks ago read the prize-winning poems of little nine-year-old Hilda Conkling, and in honor of the eighty-fourth birthday of William D. Howells, who died last summer, discussed his novels and his influence on American literature. "Personal Prejudices," by Mrs. Sturgis, is the new book of essays which the members of the class are reading, and they finished at that meeting. "Differences and Distinctions." The meeting of last week was given up entirely to a discussion of Sinclair Lewis' "Main Street." All who have read the book will understand why nothing more could be brought up for discussion with that on the program.

JUNIOR SECTION, WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB.

Officers: President, Miss Helen Jones; first vice-president, Miss Augusta Witherow; second vice-president, Miss Mabel Kirkpatrick; recording secretary, Miss Dorothy Durbin; corresponding secretary, Miss Margaret Eyre; treasurer, Miss Bertha Redifer.

The Juniors held their regular meeting on Thursday evening, March 10, at the home of Miss Marguerite Mueller. Owing to the fact that a great number of girls were not able to be present who had not yet paid their dues, but were still desirous of becoming charter members of the Club, the date for the end of enrollment period was extended to the next meeting night, March 27. So that all who wish to enjoy the honor and privilege of being inscribed as a charter member of this rapidly-growing organization are urged to be present at the next meeting, prepared to pay their dues. This will positively be the last chance for charter membership, and after the twenty-seventh every new member will be obliged to pay an initiation fee besides the dues. So opportunity awaits you, Juniors, at the next meeting!

After the business meeting the Club enjoyed a short program by some of its own members, arranged by Miss Rose Sample: a song by Miss Tina Mueller, recitation by Miss Jeannette Gillis, and piano selection by Miss Emily Sible. Then the whole Club, under the leadership of Miss Augusta Witherow, assumed the role of Glee Club and thoroughly enjoyed a half hour's practice of the music which is soon going to be instrumental in proving to Narberth that Juniors can sing as well as manage a dance.

Members of the Narberth Choral Society voted their first monthly social evening a great success. After a short rehearsal, they were invited to the Community Room, where a committee under the able directorship of Mrs. Easby had prepared a most inviting buffet luncheon, which was most heartily greeted by the hungry singers. A quartet from the choral, composed of Mr. Smith, bass; Mr. Rose, baritone; Mr. Justice, second tenor, and Mr. McGarrity, first tenor, proved a distinct victory, and the triumph achieved on Monday last is but a forerunner of coming popularity for the quartet. Another attractive feature was the good will shown by the Narberth Boys' Orchestra, who willingly played, with consummate skill, all of the popular music, much to the delight of some of our members, who enjoy the pleasure of dancing. These boys deserve great credit for their aspirations and effort. The suggestion of Mrs. Poote, of a silver collection for the benefit of the young orchestra was heartily met, and the boys have the best wishes of the chorus. The next rehearsal will find the choristers in great spirits, and better fellowship will exist through the happy social hours of last Monday.

The Presbyterian Church Meetings

(By the Committee.)

It was said last week that Dr. Bishop, who is preaching at the Presbyterian Church, was a Western man. Dr. Bishop is a Westerner by recent adoption, but is a Southerner by birth and rearing. A Southerner never loses his flavor—that which reminds you of magnolia trees and cotton fields—and the preacher is a typical product of the fine old South filtered into the East through the prairies and wheat fields of the West.

The meetings started Tuesday evening with an attendance which largely filled the main auditorium of the church and heard a very earnest opening sermon.

A choir of 50 voices has been prepared by Mr. Peter Stam, Jr., who is himself playing the grand piano for the choruses. Mr. Stam is a skilled musician, and if you love good music you will enjoy that feature of the meetings.

These meetings will run through Holy Week, ending Easter Sunday night. They begin at 7.45 for the song service, the service proper beginning about 8. The public is cordially invited to attend these services, which are part of a grand evangelistic campaign by the Presbytery of Philadelphia North.

Editorial

Narberth, Pa., March 15th, 1920.
Commander of the Harold Speakman Post, No. 356,

American Legion, Narberth, Pa.

Following is a copy of resolution passed by Council on the above date:

A Resolution.

Whereas, During a recent emergency necessitating additional protection to life and property in the borough of Narberth, the Council of the borough appealed to the Commander and members of Harold Speakman Post, No. 356, American Legion, for assistance; and

Whereas, This appeal was met promptly and efficiently by the Commander and members of the aforesaid Post; and

Whereas, The volunteer duties imposed upon them were performed faithfully and in accordance with the best interest of the borough and its citizens; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Council of the borough of Narberth does hereby record its appreciation of the loyalty, faithfulness and good will of the Harold Speakman Post, No. 356, American Legion; and be it

Resolved further, That certified copies of these resolutions be transmitted to the Commander of the Post and published in Our Town.

Attest: CHAS. V. NOEL, Secretary.

At the request of Narberth Chamber of Commerce we give below, for the information of owners of property on unpaved streets and others interested in the matter, sections of the Borough Code bearing on this subject.

Our present Council has adopted a policy of not accepting for dedication unpaved streets. They cannot pave streets that are not dedicated, so that the same condition applies to any street that was not dedicated to the borough before the policy of our present Council was adopted. As the matter of record, there are no dedicated streets in the borough at present that have not been paved.

General Borough Act.

Chapter VI, Article 7, Section 4, Par. 241:

Upon the petition of the majority of property owners in interest and in number abutting on the line of any proposed improvement, to be verified by the affidavit of at least one of the petitioners, a majority in interest of owners of undivided interests in any piece of property to be treated as one person, a borough may grade, curb, pave or macadamize or otherwise improve any street or alley or part thereof or which may be in whole or in part boundaries thereof and provide for the necessary drainage thereof, and may also provide for the improvement of any street, road, lane or alley and any sections or parts thereof in length in the space between the curb, gutter or aerial carriage-way line and the property line either by an original work or improvement thereon or by a change, repair, renewal or alteration in the said highway, curb, parking space or shade trees or by changing, altering, renewing, replanting, pruning or otherwise improving the same in any or all of said particulars.

Chapter VI, Article 7, Section 9, Par. 246:

A borough may without petition, or upon petition verified by affidavit of at least one of the petitioners, may grade, curb, gutter, pave, macadamize, or otherwise improve streets, lanes, and alleys or parts thereof and collect from the owners of real estate abutting on the improvement by an equal assessment on the foot front, the whole cost, or part thereof, including the expenses for the necessary drainage thereof, as follows, that is to say:

Par. 1. If the petition be for grading, curbing, paving or macadamizing, and is signed by petitioners representing two-thirds in the number of feet of property abutting on the proposed improvement, and the real estate on both sides of the street is assessable, then two-thirds of the cost may be collected.

Par. 2. If the petition be for grading, curbing, paving or macadamizing, and is signed by petitioners representing two-thirds in the number of feet of property abutting on the proposed improvement and the real estate on one side only is assessable, the half of the cost may be collected.

Par. 3. If the petition be for grading, curbing, paving or macadamizing and is signed by petitioners representing four-fifths in the number of feet of property abutting the line of the improvement, then the whole cost may be collected. The whole cost of such improvements shall not be assessed unless the petition shall contain a statement to the effect that the whole cost may be collected.

Par. 4. If the petition be for grading only, and is signed by a majority in number and interest of the owners of property abutting the line of the proposed improvement, a majority of the owners of undivided interest in any one piece of property to be deemed as one person, then the whole cost, or any part thereof, may be collected; and this Council in making the assessment may provide for an equitable reduction, not exceeding one-third from the frontage of all lots at street or other intersections where, for any equitable cause, an assessment for the full frontage would be unjust.

Par. 5. If any street is graded, curbed, paved or macadamized without a petition as provided in this section, then two-thirds of the cost may be collected.

TWENTY-THREE LICENSES DROPPED IN COUNTY.

Only Three Applicants From Lower Merion This Year.

When License Court sits next Monday at Norristown it will have twenty-three less licenses to grant than ever before in its history, one year of alleged prohibition having resulted in wiping out that many former places in the county during the past twelve months.

Despite this failure of twenty-three to renew and the untoward conditions now presented to the liquor industry, there still remains 156 applicants in Montgomery county for licenses to sell "brewed, malt, vinous or spirituous liquors."

These licenses are necessary, even in these days of alleged prohibition, under the Brooks law, and the decisions of the State courts to vend those liquors that come within the class of "brewed, malt, vinous or spirituous liquors," even though the alcoholic content of the same is less than one-half of one per cent., as provided by the Volstead Act. The ban on non-licensed sale of such liquors applies to all brands of "near beer," and it is thought by some it might also apply to grape juice, if a test case were made, the Brooks law not specifying alcoholic content, but only forbidding the sale without a license within the State of "brewed, malted, vinous or spirituous liquors."

That the demands for such drinks is great enough to be profitable to 156 men in this county is remarkable, but it apparently indicates that there are many men and women in the community who still enjoy the taste, even though they are deprived of the old-time kick. It is also altogether probable that many of the applicants are living in the hope that the recently-elected Congress, actuated by the remonstrances at the drastic provisions of the Volstead Act, may modify the latter so as to legalize the sale of wines and beers with the same light alcoholic content that is common to the universal beverages of Europe, these being non-intoxicating, excepting when consumed in abnormal quantities.

The three applicants from Lower Merion are John T. Odell, General

MAIN LINE OPENS FLY FIGHT.

Towns Will Co-operate to Get Rid of the Summer Pest.

Main Line towns from Overbrook to Paoli banded together Thursday night to plan a fight to the death against flies in the coming summer.

The meeting was in the Merion Title Building, at Ardmore. A committee of five will be appointed by Colonel Henry Stackman, chairman, to co-operate with these towns in the movement.

Dr. William C. Miller, of the State Department of Health, in an address, urged everybody along the Main Line to get a fly swatter "and to use it promiscuously." He also suggested that volunteer inspectors eliminate the fly's breeding places. Incidentally he recommended that a close lookout be kept for moist banana peeling, "as the fly dearly loves banana peelings and would rather feast on them than anything else."

If the proper measures are taken, Dr. Miller said, Main Line towns should be virtually free of flies this summer.

YOUNG MEN

Burdened by the daily routine of our immediate affairs, few of us find time or develop inclinations for the consideration of such problems as that of the relation of our young men to the future. The trouble is that most of us have fixed a personal goal towards which we continually strive, and in our strivings are impatient with everything that does not bear directly upon the attainment of that goal. We get absorbed in the game. Call it anything you like, interest or ambition; give it all the values it possesses, and still it will fall short of being justifiable if in the long run our absorption tends to retard the fruition of present tendencies towards increased material comforts and spiritual welfare. Besides, we can always play a better game when we make it have a meaning beyond the mere excitement of the contest. In either case, the ultimate goal lies far beyond the end of the time of any of us now active in the affairs of the world, and it therefore becomes necessary for us to consider the young men about us—the heirs of tomorrow, the men who will be at the head of affairs two decades from now. What does the present generation owe the next generation? Surely it owes more than it pays. Like every managing generation since the dawn of reason we are in the main unreasoning where youth is concerned. We are much more proficient in criticism than in guidance. Our fault-finding and impatience with mere exuberance is general—the least qualified critics among us assume that young men ought not to be young, that they ought to be sedate and follow the examples of their elders. Worse still, those of us who remember that we were young once apparently have no incentive strong enough to induce us to bear with inexperience, or more especially with new ideas when presented by young men.

Most of us have the attitude towards young men that holds them responsible for their failure to burst upon the world fully equipped with the knowledge which we ourselves have accumulated only after years of trial and error. Perhaps it is best that young men find out things for themselves, that they acquire the habit of self-reliance, but they are at least entitled to know what it is all about, or at least to know what we think it is all about. Certainly, if they are denied guidance in this particular, we need not be surprised if they take the wrong turn at some distant crossroad when theirs is the hand at the wheel. Then, too, we seldom remember that we are not handing them a world in which everything is in perfect order. —From the American Exchange National Bank.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Registrar.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

of Mr. Stam, has been most inspiring, and the attendance has been most encouraging. The meetings will continue each evening during the coming week, excepting Saturday, beginning promptly at 7.45 o'clock. Everyone is most cordially invited. Dr. Bishop will preach both morning and evening on Easter Sunday, and in the afternoon will conduct a mass meeting for men only.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Emma F. Harrison died on Sunday, March 13th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. C. Trotter, 209 Woodside avenue. Her age was 80 years. She is survived by a son and two daughters, Charles H. Harrison, of Atlantic City; Mrs. W. G. Stephenson, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Thomas C. Trotter, Jr., of Narberth.

The funeral was held from her late home Wednesday at 2.30 P. M. Interment at North Laurel Hill Cemetery.

We are sorry to note the death of Mr. George H. Lyon at his home in Springfield, Mass. Mr. Lyon has made a number of warm friends in Narberth during his visits at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clement Booth, of Merion avenue. Mrs. Booth and family have been in Springfield all winter.

70,000 VICTORY MEDALS UNDIS- TRIBUTED.

Seventy thousand Victory medals await takers at the Federal Building, Ninth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, where Captain John S. E. Young, of the recruiting service, and a detail of four men have been given space to distribute the medals unclaimed by former service men. The medals are intended for former service men in Philadelphia, Montgomery, Delaware and Chester counties.

MATERNITY WING AT THE BRYN MAWR HOSPITAL OPENED.

PROHIBITIVE COSTS DEFER ERECTION OF SEPARATE BUILDING. FOR IMMEDIATE NEED.

The new Maternity Wing at Bryn Mawr Hospital was opened on Thursday to serve for the time being in place of the large Maternity Hospital for which plans were drawn.

Over the signature of Mrs. James D. Winsor, President of the Board of Lady Visitors of Bryn Mawr Hospital, the following explanatory statement was issued this week:

The Board of Lady Visitors of the Bryn Mawr Hospital wish to announce to the Main Line that owing to the high cost of building, they have deferred erecting the large Maternity Hospital for which plans were drawn.

On account of the urgent demand, however, a Maternity wing has been built close to the present hospital at the cost of about $16,000.

When the permanent hospital is built the trustees will take this wing for other purposes and will reimburse the ladies for their expenditures.

This is a miniature hospital, but fully equipped for the work. It will accommodate four semi-private patients and four ward patients.

As the running expenses of a Maternity Hospital are very great, it is hoped by the ladies that the ward patients will pay what they can afford toward the upkeep, although no suffering mother will ever be turned away on account of poverty.

The Lady Visitors take this opportunity to thank most heartily all their kind friends and neighbors for their generous help and encouragement, and especially to all the churches who supplied us with an ample stock of linen and blankets.

THE AUTOCAR COMPANY IS FORGING AHEAD.

Did $2,000,000 More Business in 1920 Than in 1919.

One of the biggest manufacturers of motor trucks, the Autocar Company, of Ardmore, neither laid off employees during the last year nor suffered a loss in sales in the fall of 1920, and when the President of the company, David S. Ludlum, was asked if his company was hit by the reported stagnation of the auto industry, he said his company did $2,000,000 more net business in 1920 than in 1919. This gain had practically all been in the first six months of the year, but at the same time, he said, the Autocar Company did about the same business in the fall of 1920 as in the fall of 1919.

Mr. Ludlum believes the reason his company had been able to keep up as good a volume of business in the fall as they did was because they distribute practically all their motor trucks through their own direct factory branches. Net profits for the year were $70,000 more than the previous year.

As to the outlook, Mr. Ludlum has noticed for several weeks a strong desire on the part of customers and prospective customers to buy additional equipment looking toward handling the business they feel they can and should be able to do in the near future.

Mr. Ludlum expressed a belief that the natural supply and demand would regulate production and that competition would now bring about fair and equitable prices.

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate one hundred per cent. Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State and Nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of right; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.—Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion.

Meetings, fourth Friday of every month.

ARE YOU A LITTLE TUG?

Have you ever heard the story about the group of college graduates who were gathered together at a class reunion and were telling about their various experiences?

Finally one of them, turning to a more serious attitude, asked them all to tell him what they would each rather be other than themselves.

Several answers were more serious than the rest, but two seemed to impress the group more than the others. One said he would like to be his wife's next husband. The other said he would like to be a little river tug.

Of course the last answer was followed by laughter, and when asked to explain the graduate replied: "I would rather be a little river tug because, while I would be small, a great many larger vessels would be helpless without me." How many of the larger boats could dock if it were not for the little tugs?

There is a real lesson in the above answer. Here is our Our Town of Narberth. We need more little tugs to help push and put into place the various community projects that are so worthy in their cause.

If the little tugs tried to move the big vessels by running into them at full speed, and then backing away to get a start for another shove, the vessel would no doubt move back with the tide.

It is not the push and knock that moves the greater objects; it is the continual pushing and tugging with the shoulder at the wheel.

Be a little tug and boost Our Town of Narberth instead of knocking and finding fault with every worth-while project.

HAVE YOU MADE YOUR WILL?

Of course you do not think you will die today, tomorrow or next week, but you do not know when your time will come.

Everyone should make a will, and every man owes it to his family to see that they receive the benefits of his toil and labor just the same after death as before.

It is not necessary for you to see an attorney. However, it may be advisable if the estate is one in which entanglements may result.

The main points to be informed about are that a will must be signed and witnessed, in the State of Pennsylvania, by at least one person, preferably not the husband or wife. It is better to have two disinterested witnesses.

There is a great deal of satisfaction in knowing that the persons to be benefited by the will are the ones you state or name in your will.

Single Men Still Determined To Win

victory to the credit of the Married Men, the first having been achieved during Christmas.

But, as Wayne Harris says, married men need something to cheer them up right after Christmas, and maybe that's why the Single Men didn't try as hard as they might have in that first game. And they'd have won that game last Wednesday night if Bad Luck had even so much as said "How do you do?" at Roy Williams. But no such bad luck for the married men—or good luck for the single men. It's a good thing Roy didn't live back in the old witch-burning days or the goblins would certain have gotten him.

Why, even Bill Boryer admits that it looks suspicious. He says that all Roy has to do is to throw or pass the ball in any old direction at all and that if that particular direction doesn't happen to be in the exact direction of the goal, the dol-darned old ball—then—Bill's very words—just naturally "columns right," bounces on Wayne Harris' head, caroms over to Horace Smedley's left elbow and drops in the basket!

Add to Roy's 9 field goals for 18 points, Old Doc Little's 3 from the field and 5 from fouls, for a total of 11 more points and—well, what's the use saying any more?

No use at all, but don't forget that the two teams are going to clash again next Wednesday night in the School Gym, and that the proceeds will go to the School Athletic Association. The line-up and score of last week's game follows:

Married Men.	Position.	Single Men.
Williams.....	Forward.....	W. Harris
Little.....	Forward.....	Smedley
Boryer.....	Center.....	Pretz
Sharp.....	Guard.....	Scanton
Fennor.....	Guard.....	E. Dickie

(Hartley)

Field goals: Williams, 9; Little, 3; Boryer, 1; Hartley, 1; Harris, 1; Smedley, 1; Pretz, 1. Goals from fouls: Little, 5; Smedley, 6; Scanton, 1. Summary—Field goals: Married Men, 14; Single Men, 3. Goals from fouls: Married Men, 5; Single Men, 7.
